An Experienced Staff
Enjoying
New Challenges

Lake Geneva Public Library's most important asset is its staff. Library personnel can answer your questions about how to get a library card, library policies, and basically any questions you may have about our Library. Staff members are always available to help you find materials, answer your reference questions, help you learn how to use our online catalog or get started on the Internet, and how to borrow materials from other libraries. Our phone number is 262-249-5299. Or you may want to email us.

Good Friends

Lake Genevans take great pride in their Library as volunteers as well as patrons. Volunteers donate their time and money to assist in special events and day-to-day operations. In a municipality of 7000 citizens, the Library is supported by three very active groups: The Foundation, The Friends, and the Volunteers who work in the Library on a day to day basis.

Friends of the Lake Geneva Public Library

The Friends of the Library assist the staff on a number of special projects and organize the ongoing and the annual book sale. The Friends host an annual author presentation, donate money for library collections and programs, and unselfishly give of their time for projects around the building. In the year 2000, they donated $2000 for recorded books on compact disc, paid for the honorarium for speaker Jacquelyn Mitchard, and contributed $1200 towards the Celebrate the Book program. In the year 2001, the Friends donated $2600 for new chairs for patrons and $300 for baby kits. The Friends were organized in 1977 to work for the improvement of library services,

And Volunteers

Lake Genevans take great pride in their Library as volunteers as well as patrons. Volunteers donate their time and money to assist in special events and day-to-day operations. In a municipality of 7000 citizens, the Library is supported by three very active groups: The Foundation, The Friends and the Volunteers who work at the library on a day to day basis.

Volunteer Program

Library volunteers perform a variety of tasks that would otherwise require considerable staffing. Ranging in age from teens to those in their eighties, volunteers contributed over 2000 hours of service to the library in the year 2000. Volunteers organize books, compile an obituary index, shelve magazines, deliver library materials to the homebound, read at nursing homes, and perform numerous tasks that further library services. Anyone wishing to volunteer at the Library is encouraged to contact the Volunteer Director at the Library.

A Solid Foundation

Lake Genevans take great pride in their Library as volunteers as well as patrons. Volunteers donate their time and money to assist in special events and day-to-day operations. In a municipality of 7000 citizens, the Library is supported by three very active groups: The Foundation, The Friends, and the Volunteers who work in the library on a day to day basis.

Lake Geneva Public Library Foundation

The Library Foundation is a nonprofit organization incorporated in 1992. Its purpose is to create a long-term supplemental funding program to assist in providing services not available through traditional tax-based funding. The Foundation offers an opportunity for tax-deductible donations to its Golden Contributors program, its endowment fund, or as specifically earmarked donations. The Foundation provides speakers, computers, materials, and exhibits that enhance library programs, and underwrites publication of the Library's newsletter, the Lakeside Reader. Annually the Foundation hosts its Swing Dance at the lakefront Riviera. Persons wishing to join or make contributions to the Foundation should contact the Library Director.
